

BETS

As a rule, guests place their own bets, but the croupier will be happy to fulfill your wishes if time permits. You have the option of placing your bets with your own personal color chips. These have no value and are only handed out in different colors at the table.

As a guest, you determine the «value» of your color chips yourself, which is marked for everyone to see. As the personal color chips themselves do not have a value, these chips can only be played with at this table.

Of course, you can also take part in American Roulette 00 with the usual value chips. After you have finished your game, we ask you to change your color chips back into value chips immediately at the table before you leave the table. The minimum bets are marked on the respective table marked on the respective table.

THE GAME EXPLAINED

AMERICAN ROULETTE 00

CASINO
ST. MORITZ

THE GAME

The playing field, also known as the «tableau», consists of a table with lines and numbers, words and symbols, and symbols.

The centerpiece of the table is the roulette wheel, which is divided into 38 fields - from 0 to 36.

The numbers, which are not arranged in arithmetical order are arranged alternately in a red or black field. The numbers 0 and 00 appear in a green field. On the tableau, however, the numbers 0 to 36 appear in natural (arithmetic) order. The 00 (with our casino logo) is located between the numbers 1 and 33.

The croupier releases the game with «Your bets please» and asks you to place your bets. You may now place your chips on the betting desired betting options on the tableau. The croupier will also be happy to place bets for you if you wish.

The croupier sets the wheel in motion and throws the ball the ball against the direction of rotation of the ring of numbers. After the announcement «Rien ne va plus» or «no more bets», no more bets may be placed.

As soon as the ball stops in a number pocket, both the winning number and the winning color are the winning color are announced loudly and clearly.

The winning number is marked with a «dolly» so that the croupier can make the payout. All chances associated with this number are paid out. A new game can begin.
